

BRIEF BIO FOR PRESENTATIONS

Fernando Alberca has a Ph.D. in Pedagogy, Social Sciences, and Law. A Bachelor's degree in Philosophy and Letters, a Master's degree in Neuropsychology and Education, a Master's degree in Educational and Family Counseling, a Master's degree in School Management, a Degree in Anthropology and Affection from the University of Málaga, is a Counselor, and Secondary School Teacher.

He has taught in four autonomous communities and was the director of schools for 13 years. He is currently a Professor teaching Educational Counseling: Family, School, and Community Relationships, Diversity, Coexistence, and Inclusive School, and Organization of Educational Centers, in the Bachelor's degree in Primary Education and Bachelor's degree in Early Childhood Education at the Sagrado Corazón Teaching Center of the University of Córdoba (Spain). He is also a Professor in the Master's degree program of Neuropedagogy, Creativity, and Management of Capacity and Talent; Educational Applications, at the University of Córdoba, and in the Master's degree program of School Management at Villanueva University, Madrid. He is a Trainer of the Sport Values Academy of the REAL MADRID FOUNDATION and a speaker at the training school of UNICAJA BASKETBALL.

He is the director of the FERNANDO ALBERCA Educational Consultancy, e=happyCENTER, the advisory team MOTIVACIÓN & método, EducareQuerere–LifeisEducation, the Family & Happiness Opportunities Analysis Committee, the H&T–Humanity & Technology Observatory, and Sport & More & Better, for educational counseling through sports and advice to professionals in the field.

He has received the "Premio de Hoy" 2013 essay award (from Editorial Planeta), the Jaime Alonso Abruña Foundation Award (for his educational contribution), and was a Spanish candidate in 2015 for The Global Teacher Prize, Varkey Foundation.